Detailed Summary of Iswaran the Storyteller (200–250 Words)

Iswaran the Storyteller is the story of Mahendra, a junior supervisor, and his cook Iswaran. Mahendra works at different construction sites and lives a simple, isolated life. Iswaran not only cooks for him but also entertains him with fascinating stories.

Iswaran is a master storyteller. He adds drama, suspense, and emotion to even ordinary incidents. His stories often involve bravery, ghosts, and mysterious events. Mahendra listens to these tales with interest, though he initially knows they are exaggerated.

One day, Iswaran narrates a terrifying story about a ghostly woman who appears at night near their workplace. Although Mahendra dismisses it as imagination, he later sees a shadowy figure himself. Fear takes over his rational thinking, and he decides to leave the place immediately.

The chapter Iswaran the Storyteller shows how powerful storytelling can influence the human mind. It highlights how fear and belief can overpower logic. The story also reflects Indian oral storytelling traditions and teaches students to think critically rather than blindly believe everything.
