

Kathmandu Class 9 English Beehive – Summary, Notes, MCQs & Complete Study Guide (NCERT)

Meta Description (150–160 characters)

Kathmandu Class 9 Beehive NCERT chapter summary, short notes, keywords, MCQs, questions-answers, and exam tips in simple language.

Introduction of the Chapter – Kathmandu (Class 9 Beehive)

The chapter Kathmandu from Class 9 English Beehive (NCERT) is a vivid travelogue written by Vikram Seth. It describes the author's journey through the city of Kathmandu, the capital of Nepal. The chapter highlights cultural diversity, religious harmony, traditions, marketplaces, and the contrast between serenity and chaos. Kathmandu Class 9 helps students understand how travel broadens the mind and teaches tolerance, patience, and appreciation of different cultures.

Short Notes – Kathmandu Class 9 Beehive

- Kathmandu is the capital city of Nepal.
 - The author visits Pashupatinath Temple and Boudhanath Stupa.
 - Pashupatinath shows noisy, chaotic rituals and social divisions.
 - Boudhanath Stupa reflects peace, calmness, and Buddhist culture.
 - Street markets sell flutes, fruits, sweets, and souvenirs.
 - The author feels attracted to flute music.
 - He prefers staying longer rather than returning home quickly.
 - The chapter emphasizes cultural richness and human behavior.
-

Detailed Summary of Kathmandu (200–250 Words)

The chapter Kathmandu from Class 9 Beehive presents a lively description of the city through the eyes of the author, Vikram Seth. The journey begins at the Pashupatinath Temple, one of the holiest shrines of Lord Shiva. Here, the author observes chaos, crowds, priests, beggars, and even monkeys fighting. The scene highlights social differences and human indifference, especially when a poor woman is pushed aside while rich devotees are treated with respect.

In contrast, the author then visits the Boudhanath Stupa, which offers a completely different experience. The stupa is surrounded by Buddhist monks who chant prayers and walk around peacefully. This place reflects calmness, discipline, and spiritual harmony. The author feels a sense of inner peace here.

The chapter also describes the lively streets of Kathmandu filled with shops selling fruits, postcards, and especially flutes. The author is deeply attracted to the sound of the flute, which symbolizes art and tradition. He recalls how music connects people across cultures.

Towards the end, the author decides to postpone his return journey, preferring to stay in Kathmandu a little longer. The chapter Kathmandu Class 9 teaches students about cultural diversity, spiritual coexistence, and the importance of observing life closely while traveling.

Flowchart / Mind Map – Kathmandu Chapter

Kathmandu City

- Pashupatinath Temple
 - Chaos, rituals, inequality
 - Boudhanath Stupa
 - Peace, Buddhism, harmony
 - Street Markets
 - Flutes, culture, music
 - Author's Reflection
 - Desire to stay longer
-

Important Keywords with Meanings

- Kathmandu – Capital city of Nepal
 - Pashupatinath – Sacred Hindu temple of Lord Shiva
 - Boudhanath Stupa – Important Buddhist religious site
 - Stupa – Buddhist shrine or monument
 - Pilgrims – People traveling for religious purposes
 - Souvenirs – Items kept as memories
 - Chanting – Repeating prayers rhythmically
-

Important Questions & Answers – Kathmandu Class 9

Short Answer Questions

Q1. Why is Pashupatinath Temple famous?

It is one of the most sacred temples dedicated to Lord Shiva.

Q2. What difference did the author notice between the two temples?

Pashupatinath was chaotic, while Boudhanath was calm and peaceful.

Long Answer Questions

Q3. Describe the author's experience at Boudhanath Stupa.

The author felt peace and spiritual calm while observing monks chanting prayers. The environment was disciplined and serene, contrasting with the noise of Pashupatinath.

MCQs – Kathmandu Class 9 Beehive

1. Who is the author of Kathmandu?
 - a) Ruskin Bond
 - b) Vikram Seth
 - c) R.K. Narayan
 - d) Amitav GhoshAnswer: b
2. Kathmandu is the capital of which country?
 - a) India
 - b) Bhutan
 - c) Nepal
 - d) TibetAnswer: c
3. Pashupatinath Temple is dedicated to which god?
 - a) Vishnu
 - b) Shiva
 - c) Buddha
 - d) RamaAnswer: b
4. Which place reflects peace and calmness?
 - a) Market
 - b) Pashupatinath
 - c) Airport
 - d) BoudhanathAnswer: d
5. What instrument attracted the author the most?
 - a) Drum
 - b) Guitar

c) Flute

d) Violin

Answer: c

6–20. (More MCQs can be added similarly for practice and revision.)

Exam Tips / Value-Based Questions

- Compare Hindu and Buddhist culture in Kathmandu.
 - Explain how travel improves understanding of life.
 - Write answers using examples from Kathmandu Class 9 Beehive.
 - Focus on contrast-based questions for exams.
-

Conclusion – Kathmandu Class 9 Beehive

The chapter Kathmandu from Class 9 English Beehive (NCERT) is a beautiful travel narrative that highlights cultural diversity, religious harmony, and human behavior. Through simple observations, the author teaches valuable life lessons. This chapter is important for exams, value-based questions, and understanding real-life experiences through literature.