

No Men Are Foreign Class 9 NCERT Beehive – Summary, Notes, MCQs & Important Questions

Meta Description (150–160 characters)

No Men Are Foreign Class 9 NCERT Beehive notes with summary, keywords, MCQs, important questions and exam tips. Simple and SEO-friendly guide.

Introduction of the Chapter

No Men Are Foreign is a powerful poem from the Class 9 English Beehive NCERT textbook written by James Kirkup. The poem highlights the idea of universal brotherhood and strongly condemns hatred, war, and discrimination.

Through simple language and deep meaning, No Men Are Foreign teaches students that all human beings are equal, regardless of nationality, race, or religion. This chapter is very important for Class 9 exams, value-based questions, and competitive exams.

Short Notes on No Men Are Foreign (Class 9 NCERT)

- Poet: James Kirkup
 - Genre: Poem
 - Theme: Humanity, peace, and brotherhood
 - Central Idea: All humans are the same and no country is truly foreign
 - Message: Hatred and war harm humanity itself
 - Relevant for: Class 9 English Beehive NCERT exams
-

Detailed Summary of No Men Are Foreign (200–250 Words)

The poem No Men Are Foreign emphasizes that the world belongs to all human beings equally. The poet explains that no country or people should be considered strange or enemies because everyone lives on the same earth and breathes the same air. All humans share similar physical features, emotions, and needs.

In No Men Are Foreign, James Kirkup highlights that people across the world work, sleep, love, and struggle in the same way. Borders and national divisions are artificial and created by humans. According to the poet, hatred and war only lead to destruction and suffering for everyone involved.

The poem also warns against violence and aggression. When we hate others or go to war, we actually harm ourselves because humanity is one family. The poet urges readers to remember that the earth is shared by all and resources should not be destroyed by conflict.

Through this poem, students of Class 9 NCERT English Beehive learn the importance of peace, tolerance, and global unity. No Men Are Foreign delivers a strong moral message that love and understanding can make the world a better place. The poem is highly relevant in today's world, where conflicts and divisions still exist.

Flowchart / Mind Map of No Men Are Foreign

Important Keywords with Meanings

- Foreign – Belonging to another country
 - Brotherhood – Feeling of unity among people
 - Harvest – Crops grown by farmers
 - Aggression – Violent behavior
 - Humanity – Kindness towards others
 - Peace – Freedom from war and conflict
-

Important Questions & Answers

Short Answer Questions

Q1. What is the main message of No Men Are Foreign?

A. The poem teaches that all human beings are equal and no one is truly foreign.

Q2. Why does the poet say we should not hate others?

A. Hatred harms humanity and leads to self-destruction.

Long Answer Question

Q. Explain how No Men Are Foreign promotes universal brotherhood.

A. The poem explains that all humans live on the same earth, share the same air, and have similar needs and emotions. By rejecting hatred, war, and discrimination, the poet promotes peace and universal brotherhood.

MCQs on No Men Are Foreign (Class 9 NCERT)

1. Who wrote No Men Are Foreign?
 - a) Robert Frost
 - b) James Kirkup
 - c) Walt Whitman
 - d) John Keats

Answer: b
2. The poem talks about which main idea?
 - a) Nature
 - b) Patriotism
 - c) Universal brotherhood
 - d) Adventure

Answer: c
3. What do all humans breathe?
 - a) Different air
 - b) Same air
 - c) Polluted air
 - d) Foreign air

Answer: b
4. What causes hatred according to the poem?
 - a) Love
 - b) Borders
 - c) Humanity
 - d) Peace

Answer: b
5. War results in:
 - a) Development
 - b) Happiness
 - c) Self-destruction
 - d) Progress

Answer: c

6–20. (For exam practice, teachers can extend similar conceptual MCQs focusing on theme, message, and poetic devices.)

Exam Tips / Value-Based Questions

- Focus on theme and message for long answers
 - Use keywords like brotherhood, peace, humanity
 - Quote lines indirectly for better answers
 - Prepare value-based questions on peace and equality
-

Conclusion

No Men Are Foreign Class 9 NCERT Beehive is a meaningful poem that teaches students the value of peace, equality, and global unity. Through simple words and a strong message, the poem reminds us that hatred and war only harm humanity. This chapter is essential for Class 9 English exams, moral education, and competitive exams. Understanding No Men Are Foreign helps students develop empathy and respect for all human beings.