Detailed Summary of The Beggar (200–250 Words)

The Beggar narrates the story of Lushkoff, a beggar who survives by telling false stories to gain sympathy. He pretends to be a teacher or a student to earn money. Sergei, a lawyer, recognizes Lushkoff and exposes his lies. Instead of giving him money, Sergei offers him work, believing that work can reform him.

Lushkoff is reluctant and lazy but accepts the job of chopping wood. Olga, Sergei's cook, plays a crucial role in his transformation. Though she scolds him harshly, she secretly helps him by doing his work and showing kindness. Her compassion touches Lushkoff deeply.

Gradually, Lushkoff gives up drinking and begging. He starts respecting himself and earns an honest living. After two years, he meets Sergei again and tells him that he is now working as a notary and living a respectable life. He credits Olga's kindness for changing his life.

The Beggar teaches that sympathy alone is not enough; guidance and meaningful work can reform a person. The chapter strongly promotes the dignity of labour and human compassion. The Beggar is a powerful lesson from the Class 9 NCERT English Beehive syllabus and is very important for exams.
